Under 21 Hurling Final this Saturday - BBSE v St. Judes

Next weekend is a very important Local Derby weekend on the hurling front.

O' Toole Park is the place to be on Saturday next to see the Under 21 team defend our Under 21 title. John Small and his team are going for the club's 10th Under 21 crown. A win would see a first three in a row!!

The opposition is, near neighbour, St. Jude's. The teams met in the final two years ago when Boden had a comprehensive win on the day. Last year's final was a much closer affair and extra time was needed to overcome Kilmacud Crokes.

Jude's have had a very impressive run to the final and the final of two years ago will spur them on. John Small is very much aware of this and he is expecting a titanic battle. Jude's always bring a huge crowd out so it is important that we get our support out too.

Good luck to the boys!

Stephen Riney R.I.P.

The Club extends its deepest sympathy to the family of the late Stephen Riney, Club Vice-President. Stephen was one of the founders of Rathfarnham St Endas and Ballyboden St Endas and is credited with playing a pivotal part in the purchase of the Firhouse Road site in 1966 on which now stands Páirc Uí Mhurchú and the Clubhouse. Removal to Ballyroan Church this evening at 5.30. Funeral Mass 10.00 am Tuesday. Ar dheis Dé go raibh sé.

Ladies Football Update - Race Night big success

Race Night:

The Ladies Football Race Night was held on Friday night last 23rd November in the Club House. A big crowd turned out to support the event and a good night was had by all. The Ladies Football Committee would like to thank everyone who came out and supported our night. A special word of thanks to the many Sponsors and all the Businesses who placed Ads in the Race Brochure. Without their help the success of this Fundraising venture would not have been possible. It is now important that we as Club Members support these Sponsors and Local Businesses where ever possible. Well done also to the hard working Race Committee who put in a huge effort in pulling the entire event together. See photos from the night here.

Hurling Update

Sunday morning is the last game of the Round Robin series for our Minor A hurlers. It is, in effect, a Quarter-final with the winner taking all. Whitehall are the opposition and as they are in the same position as BBSE, so a huge battle is expected. Boden had a good win in the League (3-12 to 3-05) in Cloghran on the 22nd April but this result will matter little on Sunday morning. It is a home game for Boden. Sancta Maria is the likely venue. Keep an eye on the website for updates.

The hurling AGM took place on Sunday. Tomás Ó Reachtabhra has been re-elected Chairperson of the section. This is Tomás' fourth year at the helm and we wish him and all the hurling section the very best for next year. Go n-eirí an t-ádh leat, a Thomáis, i rith na bliana.

Senior Hurling Manager

Applications for the position of Senior A Hurling Manager are now invited. Applications may be submitted to the secretary of the section in writing or by e-mail by 9.00pm on Wednesday, 5th December.

Ho, Ho, Ho!!!! Santa is coming to Ballyboden - Dec 8th

Santa will visit Ballyboden St. Enda's Club House Saturday December 8th 2012 - Arriving at 3:00pm to 5:30pm

Everyone welcome!

Geniemackers Magic Show @ 3:30pm for the Younger kids. Followed by disco for older children.

As those of you who attended Santa last year may remember, the hall was extremely crowded between the 190 children, their parents, grandparents and lots of large buggies!! In an effort to maintain crowd control Santa would like to respectfully suggest the following:

- Those with smaller children may wish to come earlier as the show is more tailored towards the younger children and those with older come later for the disco.

- Santa would also like to suggest that the number of buggies in the hall be limited, however if buggies were required, it would be greatly appreciated if parents could use smaller buggies if at all possible.

Looking forward to seeing you all there = Ho,Ho,Ho

Siúltóirí Buadáin

Siúltóirí Buadáin took to the Glencree Valley on Saturday and undertook the challenge of Djouce. Djouce from Crone Wood is a great winter mountain trek. Its terrain is diverse and offers all that one requires when out on the mountains.... woods, forrest trails, a waterfall, a river crossing and steep tough climbs. From every angle there are magnificent views over Powercourt Demesne and Parklands and the majestic Powerscourt Waterfall. Djouce, although stark and imposing is perhaps the more popular mountain among the Dublin Wicklow Range and draws many trekkers to its slopes at the weekends.

Other popular treks among walking groups are the coastal walks along the Eastern Shores south of Dublin. On Saturday a large number of Na Siúltóirí took to the coast, parked up in Kilcoole, walked to Greystones, chatted over cups of coffee and did a return walk back to Kilcoole.

This easy grade walk is overlooked and guarded by the Dublin Wicklow hills and offers wonderful views over Dublin Wicklow Bay. The coast line is a haven for Shore Anglers and Birdwatchers and their presence add greatly to the peace and tranquility of this beautiful walk.

The Camino Way is in sight for Na Siúltóirí, and we are lucky to be able to test and strengthen our stamina as we trek the hills and walk the coastline week after week.
