New Club PRO

As was outlined in Boden News, Gerry O'Sullivan is stepping down as Club PRO after more than 30 years in that role. As everyone knows, Gerry has been a top class PRO and we are very grateful for his contribution down the years. Although he is relinquishing the title, I am sure that he will continue to play an active role in guiding us along the Communications pathway.

Sinéad Ryan has kindly agreed to take up the PRO mantle and we wish her well in her new role. Sinéad was PRO for the National Féile Competition hosted in Dublin last year.

Siúltóirí Buadáin Report

A rabbit rescue, coffee and gingerbread men in Timbertrove, a cold turkey trek up Djouce, a mystery tour, a reading on seafaring, the Hill of Howth and Howth Head and coffee in the Yatch Club all reflect how diverse our walks can be and have been over the past few weeks.

Wednesday 18th December: We found a rabbit, clearly abandoned, at the entrance to Cruagh Wood on the Tibbradden Road. Our rescue skills were put into action and after much tooing frooing and chasing, Sean Bonnar became the Hero, captured our little friend, tucked her snugly into Ger McGovern's rucksack and all eight of us brought her to the safety of the DSPCA. A successful rescue deserved a treat, so we headed up to the O'Kellys in Timbertrove, and enjoyed some coffee and gingerbreadmen in the warm and homely atmosphere of their coffee shop.

Thursday 27th December: Our traditional Cold Turkey walk on Djouce was rather interesting. Some of us made it to the top of Djouce, via Crone Wood, defying strong gale force winds of 60 miles per hour, while others abandoned the effort from Lugala and headed via Cruagh to 'The Blue'.

Wednesday 2nd January: To win back some credibility, after a failed attempt on Djouce, Conor brought us on a mystery trip. He walked us at a rapid pace from Brennanstown Road, up to Bridesglen, over the M50, up Pucks Castle Lane to Carriggollan Woods to view the 80ft Chimney Tower that once ventilated the Ballycorus Lead Mines. The views over Dalkey Island are spectacular from the Tower and the old graveyard on route well worth a visit. Conor, with a little twinkle in his eye, suggested perhaps that we might like to continue over to climb 'The Sugar loaf'. We declined, 'tiredness' we said, he won the day.

Saturday 5th January: 31 of Na Siúltóirí took to the tracks of The Hill of Howth and Howth Head. The coastal views over North County Dublin never disappoint, and the Wicklow Hills to the South, standing tall and proud, are truly spectacular.

Sitting on rocks, enjoying lunch, John Connolly read to the attentive walkers, a chapter from 'Seamanship' By Adam Nicolson. The backdrop of the sea and the sound of the waves married perfectly with the eloquent words of the passage and added a wonderful literary element to our day.

Our walks in Howth are never complete without a coffee in the Yatch Club. Thank you JC for your very generous hospitality. Siúltóirí Buadáin Report

25 Cards Update

With just the last night to count, Mary Byrne on 125 held a lead of 5 games over Ned Heffernan on 120, with Peter Glavey in 3rd Place on 111 and Betty O'Neill on 108. It was a two horse race for 1st and 2nd place. 3rd spot was reasonably secured, as Betty was unavailable. Was it all down to pressure or just the run of the cards? Neither Mary nor Ned made any headways on the night just winning 3 & 4 game respectfully. The Hogan brothers Sean & Gerry had a great score of 15, the ever-cool Pdraig Malone & Liam O'Connor came home with 12 games.

Final positions were as follows

Mary Byrne 128
Ned Heffernan 124
Peter Glavey 118
Betty O'Neill 108
Pdraig Malone 106
Jo Heffernan 106

The cards resumed on Friday 4th January with the2 Liam's, Cannon & O'Connor at the helm(Hugh O'Neill will join them following week on his return from his break in Canada)

Now is a good time to get involved so do come along this Friday Night.at 9pm
