Coaching Corner - John Giles Interview on Youth Coaching

The following is a link to a conversation between Irish Soccer Legend John Giles and Ger Gilroy from Newstalks Off the Ball programme. The discussion relates to John Giles experiences of being coached as a child and more specifically his insight into how the coaching of kids during the 80's & 90's affected the overall skill development of players and how a win at all cost attitude had a long term affect on skilful and creative players.

The first 10 mins of the conversation is what is of real importance and should make us all think about our attitudes towards coaching and winning in general.

Ballyboden St. Endas School Blitzes 2013

Over the last two weeks the club has been holding its annual school blitzes for all of our 9 local primary schools in the area. The blitzes allowed an opportunity for nearly 500 boys and girls from 2nd, 3rd & 4th class to come to the main clubhouse, take part in the small sided matches and represent their school in Football, Ladies Football, Hurling and Camogie.

Brian O'Regan & Paul Mc Loughlin co-ordinated activities, and with great help from some of our Minor and U16 Players, the blitzes were thoroughly enjoyed by all the children, teachers & parents present. Special thanks to all the principals and teachers for their continued support of GAA in our local schools, and the important link they have with Ballyboden St. Endas.

U12 blue ladies football team

A couple of weeks ago, before their match against Clontarf the ladies U12 blue football team swapped the safety of the football pitch for the high ropes and zip lines at Zipit in Tribadden wood. Ciara McCullagh, Ally Ramsden, Elaine Whelan, Saoirse Hassett, Chloe O'Reilly, Aoife Leavy, Lauren Tyrrell, Grace O'Connor, Erica Tobin, Caoimh Lynn, and Hannah McGrane along with mentors Linda McCullagh and Stuart Ramsden spent the morning climbing poles, swinging into cargo nets, climbing walls, balancing on rope bridges and, hurtling down zipwires, just your normal match warm up!!!!!!

Wedding Bells!

Big congratulations to former Senior football star Conor Dolan and Danielle McGarry who married recently in Castle Durrow.
