Camogie News - Senior A's and B's in action tonight

Firstly, best wishes to Fiona Hughes, Senior Camogie on her recovery from a serious hand injury sustained in a recent Cup game. Get well soon Fiona.

After a great opening Cup win over Erins Isle, the Senior A's are in action tonight at home to Lucan Sarsfields on Pairc Ui Murchu.

Also playing at the same time the Senior B's are away to Clann Na Gael also in the Cup.

On Friday evening we had the Annual Camogie Mini All-Ireland at the Club. This is a pre-Summer internal Blitz for Camogie players aged 8-13. We had in excess of 170 players in Junior (8-10) and Senior (11-13) games.

Perfect planning meant that everything ran on time, with games commencing at 5.30pm and both Finals completed by 8pm. The barbecue (thanks to Paddy Brady) and shop were always busy and thankfully the rain held off. ALL girls who participated were presented with a medal by Ann Griffin, Senior Club & Dublin player.

The evening was a great success and games are always played in the spirit which is intended. The emphasis being all girls having a fun evening. It was a terrific sight to see 8 Camogie games being played simultaneously for in excess of 2hrs on Pairc Ui Murchu and Cherryfield.

Well done to all girls who took part, and a special mention for organisers James Murray, Tony Sweeney, Jean Gargan & Joan Feehan.

Hurling News - Junior C Championship Win!

Ballyboden Junior C hurlers got back to winning ways in the Championship against Brendan's in perfect conditions in PUM on Tuesday night.

A tight first half left the sides level at half time 6 points apiece with Brendan's hitting 4 of their 6 points from frees to keep them in touch. Ballyboden came out and dominated the second half and got off to a great start with a goal from Morgan Ryan with points from Gavin Duff, Brian Cummins and Captain Des O Sullivan to put us in the driving seat. A goal from a sideline cut by Brian Cummins put the game beyond any doubt. A great team performance drove us on with Ross Cullen, Jason Long (who hit 2 points from centre half back) and Mark Roberts having a great second half in the half back line. Des O Sullivan and Brian O Connor worked tirelessly in the centre of the field and we had great performances in the forwards by Mick McGarry, Gavin Duff (0-4) and Kevin Dooley (0-3). Scorers: Brian Cummins 1-7, Morgan Ryan 1-0, Gavin Duff 0-4, Kevin Dooley 0-3, Jason Long 0-2, Des O Sullivan 0-1, Brian O Conner 0-1. Final Score Ballyboden 2 – 18 St Brendan's 1 -8.

The Senior B team were narrowly pipped in a game of two halves away to Pormarnock in the Senior B Championship on a score line of 2 17 to 4 10. A quarter final place had already been secured.

Other results this week:

AHL 1 – BBSE 2 20 St. Brigid's 2 15

AHL 2 – BBSE 1 14 Setanta 3 05

AHL 4 – BBSE 4 22 St. Finian's 2 08

AHL 5 – BBSE 1 12 St. Brigid's 3 08

Good luck to our Dublin hurlers v Kilkenny on Saturday. Let's hope we can skin the cats in the replay! Best wishes to Gary, Stephen, Conal, Shane, Simon, Paul, Conor and Niall.

Tough luck Colm O' Neill and the Dublin Minors on their defeat to Kilkenny at the weekend on a score line of 0 17 to 2 07

Coaching Corner - Words to the wise!

Half time team talks

This weeks article for the Coaching Corner is on half time team talks. The article is taken from the Coaching Edge magazine. It deals with a range of sports and has tips from top professionals on how they use that vital few minutes at half time to communicate with the players.

Eamonn Ryan Wall Ball Workshop

7 times All-Ireland winning Ladies Football manager Eamonn Ryan gave a wall ball workshop to over 80 coaches from the club last night (Monday). During the workshop Eamonn took 18 players from the under 15/16 teams through a series of drills in football and hurling. The main emphasis of the workshop was getting the players to kick off both feet and strike off both sides. Eamonn also spoke to the players about the importance of practicing the skills of the game on their own away from collective training, if they wanted to improve.

Delayed Opening of the New Skills Wall

Due to Saturdays result between Dublin and Kilkenny, the official opening of the Ball Wall will be postponed until a later date. Please watch our website for more information.

Boden lads and lassie climb Kilimanjaro

A big thank you to all who supported the fundraising on behalf of the Ballyboden lads who returned home this week after successfully climbing Mount Kilimanjaro the highest mountain in Africa at 5895 Metres above sea level .It was extremely cold but they still managed to bring a few Boden jerseys along.

Photographed are: Cathal Hester , Cillian Donohoe , Rossa Lynch, Cian Kelly and Barra Mc Garry along with some of their climbing group. Congratulations also to Yvonne Lynch who made the climb with the lads.

Well done
