Senior Camogie begin quest for 4-IN-A-ROW

After three consecutive Leinster Final defeats, the Senior 1 Camogie side begin their quest for 4-in-a-row County Championships this Thursday when they host N Brid at Pairc Ui Murchu, throw in 7pm. Hopes are high that the girls will hit the ground running and get their campaign off to a successful beginning. There are a number of girls carrying injuries, hopefully these will have cleared up in time. Best of luck to the players and Richie Sweetnam and his management team.

The Senior 3's also begin their campaign on Thursday, at home in Sancta Maria to Na Fianna. In 2012 we were very unfortunate to lose narrowly in the semi-final, so the aim is to go one better this year and reach the Final. The draw could'nt have been more difficult, so the girls know the importance of the first game. Once again, best wishes to players and management.

After their successful League campaign, the Senior 6's were very unfortunate to go down by 2 points in their first Championship outing last Tuesday away to Na Fianna. This evening they host Castleknock on Pairc Ui Murchu, throw-in 7pm. Hopefully the girls will reproduce their League form and get a win this evening, keeping them on track for a semi-final spot.

All Support welcome for ALL teams in Championship action this week, including our Juvenile teams who get underway at the weekend.

FIXTURES:

Tuesday 27th	Senior 6 v Castleknock	Pairc Ui Murchu	7pm
Thursday 29th	Senior 1 v N Brid	Pairc Ui Murchu	7pm
	Senior 3 v Na Fianna	Sancta Maria	7pm

Congratulations to Fiona Ní Shúilleabháin \(pictured with the Nancy Murray Cup\) and the Dublin Junior camogie team who won the Liberty Insurance All-Ireland Junior A title in Clane beating Offaly 1-13 to 0-8.

Best of luck to Doireann Mullany, Aisling O' Leary, Sarah Nagle & Martha O' Donoghue who play for the Dublin Minor Camogie team in the Leinster Final against Wexford this weekend, keep an eye on the website later in the week for details of venue/time.

Hurling Update

Last week was a busy week on the hurling front with our 4 Adult teams in action.

The Junior A team lost out narrowly to Kilmacud Crokes in Silverpark, having been pipped by a goal in the closing minutes. Sadly this ends our run in the Junior A Championship. Well done to the team and management on their Championship run. Their focus will now turn to the League where the team has still much to look forward to. With three games to play, the team are well poised to gain promotion but, of course, this cannot be taken for granted. They will also have an outing in the St. Jude's Sevens on the weekend of the hurling final.

The Junior C team have reached the semi-final of the Junior C Championship after a fine win over St. Sylvesters.

The results are listed below:

- AHL2 - BBSE 4 11 Raheny 4 11
 - AHL1 BBSE - 3 22 Faughs 1 19
 - Junior A Championship - BBSE 0 15 Kilmacud Crokes 2 10
 - Junior C Championship - BBSE 2 15 St. Sylvesters 0 08Hur

Football News

It was a quiet week for football unless you are a Mayo fan. The Club would like to congratulate Tom Prendergast, former Boden Senior Footballer (part of the 1995 SFC winning squad) and Selector on the Mayo team on reaching their second successive All-Ireland Final – you learnt well from Sean Fitzmaurice and Pat Conway!

Our Senior Footballers are in action on Wednesday 28th away to Raheny in the League. Next up are the Junior C's away to St.Killians on Thursday. The results of these games could well determine the League for both teams. Heading into the weekend all the remaining teams are in action – see fixtures on website for all up to date information and/or changes.

The MFC draw has been made and gets underway on Sunday 8th September. The first round is as follows:

- The Minor A team are home to Ballymun Kickhams in the A Championship
- The Minor B team are away to Clontarf in the C Championship
- The Minor C team are away to St.Patricks (D) in the D Championship

As the Dublin footballers prepare to face old rivals Kerry in the All Ireland SFC Semi-Final we wish Boden players Michael-Darragh, Darragh and Declan and all the squad the best of luck in what promises to be a great game.

Reminder: Please get your sponsorship in for the Golf Classic taking place in Edmonstown on the 6th September.

Finally thanks to everyone who support and also assist our teams as we move into the critical part of the season.

U14 Girls Enjoy trip to South East

Photo of the girls and mentors of the under 14 a's who recently travelled to Shielbeggan Outdoor activity centre near Hook Head. Girls and mentors alike got to go sea coast steering, sea pool plunging, caving and rock climbing. A full day began with an early departure of 7.00 am from the club Saturday the 10th and after a 2 hour drive arrived to the beautiful Hook head peninsula. After a full detailed briefing on safety was given, 2 bus loads of the eager early birds set off to explore the Hook coastline. Wet soaked and windswept, a hungry bunch returned to base for lunch and a spot of rest before the afternoon activities began. A detour to Kilmore Quay on the way home proved very worthwhile as the large mass of blue and white boden colours descended on the local chipper to devour the local catch and sit and enjoy the sunny southeast's offering of mediteranean sun.

Great day had by all and many thanks to all Mentors, Girls and parents who travelled that day!!!

Leahy and Co. Summer Camp Sponsors

Many thanks to Eoin O' Riordain from Leahy & Co Chartered Accountants in Rathfarnham for their continued sponsorship of the Summercamp, which was a great success this year.
