Best of luck to the Dubs in All Ireland Final on Sunday!

The very best of luck to Michael Darragh, Darragh and Declan and all the Dubs in the All Ireland Final on Sunday! Lets hope we have another "unbelievable day" - as per this interview with Marty Morrissey 2 years ago.

As we have been over-subscribed for tickets compared to our allocation, there will be a draw to decide the allocation of the tickets for the All Ireland on Thursday afternoon and the lucky winners will be published on the website and on the noticeboard in the club straight away after the draw. Please check website on Thursday for details. Tickets will be districuted on Thursday night.

The night before the All-Ireland is always a special occasion in the club and this year will be no exception, come on down to experience the pre-match gossip, nerves and banter on Saturday night! There will be a bit of music in the bar and hopefully a full house to welcome all Dubs and Mayo supporters on the eve of the All Ireland.

Don't forget if you have no ticket for the match itself why not join the rest of the club and watch it on the big screen. A special thanks also to Conor, Mark, Kevin & Co for putting up all the decorations around the locality and club.

Football Update

Countdown begins in earnest to this years All-Ireland football final and surely no-one would begrudge Mayo a victory – except this year of course!! The ‘Mayo Mafia’ will no doubt be out in force saying they’re the underdogs! However before we go there, let’s catch-up on this weeks football action.

Seniors and Inters continue with their preparation for c/ship. However, there were no league fixtures for both teams this weekend.

The Junior A’s were narrowly defeated away to Na Fianna on a scoreline of 3-6 to 2-7. Hopefully they can get results in their last 2 league games.

The Junior B’s were also beaten by Lucan by a score of 3-13 to 1-05.

Next weekend sees all our Minor teams in Championship action again in the second instalment of their round-robin series – see poster for details. These matches will have an early start Sunday morning because of the All-Ireland football final. Good luck to all concerned.

C/ship fixtures have been fixed for Friday October 4th (Inters) and Saturday October 5th (Seniors).

As always see the website for updated fixtures.

Getting back to Sundays All-Ireland football final, we would like to wish Michael Darragh, Declan and Darragh and their Dublin colleagues the very best in their quest for Sam.

Finally thanks to everyone for your continued support of our teams. Football Update

Hurling Update - Senior B Hurlers in Championship SF

Our Minor B hurlers opened their Championship campaign on a wild and wintry Sunday morning at Páirc Uí Mhurchú with a win over Naomh Barrog. Boden, playing with a strong wind, set the tempo of the game with a second minute goal from Owen Wigglesworth. Naomh Barrog’s full back suffered a hand injury in the opening minutes and they had to reorganise their defence. Boden controlled the game with well worked scores from the half and full forward lines of Sean Brennan, Michael Boland, Evan MacDonnell, Oisín O Dúill and Owen Wigglesworth. Two long rang frees by Ciarán O'Brien from his own 45m line resulted in two goals. Darragh Gogan, Garret Crowley and Darragh Maguire worked tirelessly around midfield keeping the pressure on the Barrog defence. Mid-way in the first half Sean Brennan netted a goal from a penalty. Boden led at the break 9-12 : 1:01. Barrog started the second half with determination. The Boden defence were solid, stood up to the task and prevented their opponents from getting a hold on the game. The introduction of Cian Murray, Patrick O'Meara, Stephen Edwards, Thomas O'Connor and Matthew Normile ensured Boden remained sharp to the end. Full time score 10.16 to 1.03.

Team: Andrew Boyd Lyons, Michael O'Flaherty, Ciarán O'Brien (1.0), Eoin Harrington, Robert Leddy, Ronan Dooley (Capt)(0.2), Jack Mahon, Garrett Crowley (0.5), Darragh Maguire, Darragh Gogan, Owen Wigglesworth (2.1), Oisín O Dúill (1.2), Sean Brennan (3.1), Evan MacDonnell (1.3), Michael Boland (2.2)

The Minor A team were beaten by Na Fianna in their opening game in a keenly contested game in Sancta Maria. The windy conditions made hurling difficult. Na Fianna were worthy winners on the day on a score line of 2 13 to 1 15. Their next game is against Cuala on Sunday week.

Upcoming Fixtures

The big game this week is Saturday's Senior B championship Semi-final V Naomh Mearnóg in Parnell Park. Please support the lads in the difficult task of retaining the Sen B tilte. The Senior A team have two games this week. They play Crumlin in Sancta Maria on Tuesday at 8pm and they play Vincents at 5.30pm in Páirc Naomh Uinsíonn on Saturday. Those attending the Sen B should make the short journey over to Vincents to see the Sen A boys in action.

Camogie Update

Senior 1 Camogie had a fine win in the Championship over Erin's Isle last Tuesday by 0-19 to 0-8. The return to the starting line-up of Emer Lucey proved beneficial, picking off some fine scores over the course of the 60 minutes. Tonight they have a difficult trip to Lucan, throw-in 7.30pm, both teams have 100% records so far, with Lucan already qualified for the semi-final stage.

Senior 3's suffered a heartbreaking 1 point defeat away to Lucan on Thursday, 1-9 to 1-8. Despite dominating the final 20 minutes, the Boden girls just couldn't get the break around the opposition goalmouth that they deserved. Players & Mentors should be proud of their performance in this game, and hopefully they will continue playing at this level in their remaining games.

The Senior 6's were beaten in the Championship semi-final away to Whitehall on Tuesday evening. It was the only occasion this year in which the girls didn't do themselves justice, and Whitehall were worthy winners. However, this doesn't detract from what has been a terrific year, becoming Senior 6 League Champions. Well done to all players who played during the year, and we can hope for continued progress here in 2014.

The U16A's showed promise in defeating St Vincents by 6-8 to 1-5 on Friday evening. Good performances here from Claire Kirwan, Ciara O' Neill & Jane Edwards who scored 2 terrific points from long range to cap a fine display.

On Sunday morning the U15A's had a fine comeback win, also over St Vincents. Trailing by 9 points at half time, they eventually ran out winners by 1 point. Fine performances here from Emer O' Leary, Hannah Hyland & Sarah Lambert. A win over Good Counsel this Thursday will qualify the girls for the semi-final next month.

Upcoming Fixtures:

Tuesday 17th	Lucan Sarsfields v Senior 1	12th Lock	7.30pm
Thursday 19th	Boden U15A v Good Counsel	Pairc Ui Murchu	6.30pm
Saturday 21st	Oliver Plunketts v Boden U16A	AWAY	2pm

credit to themselves, their parents and Ballyboden St Endas. We extend our thanks to Austin Stacks and especially John Mitchels who are completing a wonderful GAA centre with building development and pitches. We wish them well and welcome them back to Boden in the near future.

Boden Theatre Group - 8 Weeks To Go!

Rehearsals are going well for the Boden Theatre Group. The action and movement of the play is coming along due to a lot of hard work and preparation from our director Joe Kearney. Sean Fitzmaurice has taken a break from being on stage to concentrate on the set, which is complex in design to match the complex story of "The Plough and The Stars". The play unfolds over 4 acts and in 4 different locations. So a lot of work has and will go into this production's set design and construction. And many of the players have even learned some of their lines, which is always a big help!

Don't forget the play is on for 4 nights from 13th - 16th November 2013.
