Under 21s Advance to Semi

How appropriate it was. As the Boden Drama Group take the stage with their final production of "Many Young Men of Twenty", Ballyboden's young hurlers of that vintage served up a superb performance of their own in Sancta Maria on Saturday 15th November in defeating keen rivals Kilmacud Crokes in the Dublin U21 Hurling Championship quarter-final. The game was played in perfect, still, calm November conditions as Crokes were first to attack the Boden goal. A fine save by a focused Conor Dooley was followed by a pinpoint clearance to Gavin Corrigan, who opened the scoring for the home side. As expected, there was not much between these two fine teams and scores were exchanged throughout the first quarter with the sides level four times in that period. James Madden and Tom Hanafin led the defence and in midfield, Conor Robinson was his usual industrious self. When Naoise Greene put Boden ahead 6 points to 5, it signalled a good spell for Boden. This was followed by a masterful display of long-range scoretaking when Jamie Desmond slotted over four 65's. Crokes clawed their way back to near parity at the end of the first half, mainly through the efforts of Caolan Conway to leave the half-time score at Boden 0-11 Crokes 0-9.

The second half required a statement and Eoghan O'Neill delivered it with two superb points from the left. Again Crokes responded, with Robert Murphy delivering good ball to the forwards. The sides were level again after ten minutes at 14 points each. Boden steadied and with Dónal Butler playing an increasingly influential role at half-back, began to get the upper hand. This was Boden's best period and all lines were working well – Tom Hanafin and Kenneth Wigglesworth cleaning up at the back with Colm O'Neill and Adam Jermyn providing the link to the full-forward line, the chances came. One of these arrived in the 20th minute when James Roche got his hand on the ball, was fouled and allowed to keep going by referee Dave O'Donovan, shook off another tackle and pinged the ball to the net.

This now left eight between the teams and surely the win would become a reality. Crokes piled forward and got a late goal but with Conor Dooley in the last few minutes, as he did in the first, minding the net with great authority, the home team won out on a scoreline of 1-23 to 1-17. An early winter boost and great credit to both teams for the game they played in front of a fine crowd. Boden look forward to the semi-final in a couple of weeks.

Isles Pip Boden in Battle of Finglas

Ballyboden Minor B Hurlers lost by the narrowest of margins in the championship semi-final on Sunday morning. On an unkind, but deemed "playable" surface, the contest boiled down to a frenetic last five minutes and who had the wherewithal to conjure up a winning score. With Bodens attackers pondering the classic "chicken and egg scenario", Isles Mark Morrison launched one off the "sweet spot" from all of 70 yards and topped Oisín Carolans goal by a few feet. In the remaining minute Boden could not get an attack going and had to give way to the worthy winners.

Boden were quickest out of the traps and gave the fine travelling support a good feeling about where the spoils were going. Man of the half, Ciarán Ryan was fouled early on and Ruairi Kirwan stepped up and did the honours. Cillian Byrne found Ryan with a long ball and he pointed with ease. Isles Liam Sheridan responded with a fine score, before it was Ryan again on target. Aaron Coffey for Boden did all the hard work, but his shot was easily thwarted by the goalkeeper. Isles impressive Conor Kearney landed a free, Kirwan responding from play. Kearney was enjoying his Sunday outing, if can be judged by his fine score from out the country. Score 4 to 3, Boden to the good.

Now enter Isles Ciarán Whelan, a speedy operator, he loses his camán in an exchange, but continues "soccer-style", tidings of what's to come, and almost regains possession for an opportunity. Kearney tied the game before Coffey assists Tommy Deane for a grand score. Coffey gets his own reward, a point, after Byrne set him up. The half continued with Boden dominant, Ryan, Coffey and Byrne (a monster free) all on target. Sheridan for Isles notched a fine response. Again Ryan thought he had pointed, his shot hit the upright, but Kirwan was the quickest to respond and goaled. This woke up the Isles and particularly Whelan. He dodged several tackles to kick to the net, a fine response.

Half Time, Boden 1.8 Erins Isle 1.5.

Bodens second half was more about defending than attacking and Peadar MacMahuna and the O'Flaherty's, Michael and Kevin showed fine qualities. However one man stood tallest in the Boden defence and earned the MVP tag, Barry Lyons was nothing but efficiency itself in mopping up Isles attacks. Kearney and Coffey exchanged points, before Kirwan had work to do and split the posts. 1.10 to 1.6. The middle third was becoming something a war zone, with Isles shading it. Boden introduced Michael O'Brien to match the high tempo and his contribution was noteworthy.

However the Isles attacks kept coming faster than Boden could deal with them.

King and O'Neill for the home side narrowed the deficit and the pressure was on big time!

Byrne kept the scoreboard ticking over with a free, but that was Bodens last score with about 7 minutes left. With the pitch cutting up badly, Jake Thornton was quickest to react to a breaking ball and he planted it to the corner of the net to tie the contest. Boden could not find a way to break the siege and had to give way to Morrison's winning score on 59 minutes.

Best of luck to Isles in the final and hard luck, after a great season, to Dan Boland's squad, expertly coached by Naoise and Niall. Thanks to all who helped out.

CLIMB4CLARE WALK

On Sunday afternoon last a large group of over 150 took part in the Walk for Climb4Claire . The weather conditions were just perfect as people gathered in the Club Car park . After a lively warm up session at the Club the group decked out in pink tee shirts headed off to the Hell Fire Club en route up the Knocklyon Road and up Stocking Lane. The pace was brisk and as we started the Climb up Stocking Lane we knew this was no walk in the Park! All along the route we were chaperoned by members of the Walking Club lead by Conor Sheehan who kept the group together and insured road safety was upheld by all. By the time we reached The Hell Fire Car Park the drive to get to the top was so important to all. The majority of the group took the steeper route and this was the one part of the walk that there was no chatting! Meanwhile the buggy walkers took the longer path around the hill lead by the O'Regan family.

Finally after walking over an hour and half reaching the top of the hill everyone was rewarded with the spectacular views that the good weather aloud on the day. This walk for sure was a real Climb and those present displayed a great sense of achievement, remembering what the occasion was all about. As the walkers decended back down the hill Claire Clark had made the journey out to the Hell Fire Carpark to meet everyone. This remarkable and courage's young woman who is at an advanced stage of her illness conveyed her huge appreciation and thanked the group for their efforts in supporting the CLIMB charity.

The Walkers headed off down the hill with some taking a well earned break in the Timbertrove Tea Rooms and then continued back to the Club House. The organising Committee would like to thank everyone for the great support they received on the day. A special thanks to Liam Cunningham and Denis Hughes for the leading the group in their vehicles and taking photos on the day. To Mick Farrell Bar Manager for providing refreshments to the hungry crew as they returned and to the many others that contributed to making this day a success.

If anyone would still like to contribute to the CLIMB4CLARE Charity the can contact Louise Kelly at loukelly78@gmail.com
