Condolences - Hogan family

The club would like to express our deep sympathies to Liam Hogan and family on the tragic death of his cousin Offaly U21 Hurling manager Dermot Hogan.

Uachtarán Chumann Lúthchleas Gael Liam Ó Néill has expressed his own sympathies saying "Dermot's passing is an enormous loss to the GAA, his County Offaly and his club Coolderry. He held a very special place in the hearts of his local community and was involved from the grassroots up".

Football News - Junior A's late win over Kilmacud

Round Up

On Saturday both the Seniors and Inters were in league action. Our Senior footballers travelled out to St.Pats Donabate and shared the points 0-15 to 2-09, while our Inters still struggling with numbers went down to St.Finians Swords 1-16 to 1-09.

Sunday saw fixtures for the Junior teams, the Junior A's travelled to Kilmacud Crokes and put in a gritty comeback performance coming from 8 points down to win 4-05 to 1-12, proving the old adage that goals do indeed win games. Thanks to Sean Gilheaney for the photos.

Our junior B's received a walkover.

Both Junior teams are in action again midweek and would appreciate your support, see below.

Upcoming fixtures:

29/7 Junior A V Naomh Mearnog 19.15pm PUM

31/7 Junior B V Cuala 19.15pm Hyde Park

Finally on the bank holiday Monday (4th August) the Dublin Minors take on Cork for a place in the All-Ireland Semi-final and we wish all the squad well and especially Boden lads Colm, Warren, Shane, Barra and coach Mark Fee. Throw in time in Semple Stadium is 2pm.

Hurling News - Junior A's reach the Quarter Final

The Dublin hurlers faced a huge task in visiting Semple Stadium on Sunday to play Tipp on their home turf. The task proved too much on the day. Commiserations to all the Dublin team and management but in particular to our club representatives. Conal, Conor, Stephen, Shane and Paul all saw action on the day. Niall, Gary and Simon are recovering from injury. Hopefully they will all be back in action with the club after the Summer break. We also send commiserations to the Dublin Minor hurlers who were also beaten in Thurles on Sunday. Rian Cannon was part of the panel but did not feature on the day.

The Junior A team have reached the Quarter Final of the Championship and this will be our first knock-out game of the season when the season resumes on 13th August. The Junior C Championship team await other results before their Quarter Final. The Junior E Championship team play Commercials in a play-off on 14th August. League action resumes for all teams on 16th August.

The club community was saddened to hear of the death of Rita Fletcher, mother of Mick, our Hurling Bórd Delaegate in early July. We send our condolences to Mick and his family. Ar dheis Dé go raibh a h-anam uasal.

Sports Prophet - New Leader !!!!

We have changes at the top of the Sportsprophet Leaderboard.

July concludes one of the busiest sporting months of 2014. Germany were crowned World Cup Champions for the fourth time while England made a tame exit at the Group stages. The Provincial Hurling and Football Championships also finished this month with Kerry, Dublin, Mayo and Donegal taking the football honours while Kilkenny and Cork claimed their respective Leinster and Munster Hurling Titles. In Golf, Rory McIlroy held off a spirited challenge from Ryder Cup team mate Sergio Garcia to claim his third major Title at the Open Championship at Royal Liverpool.

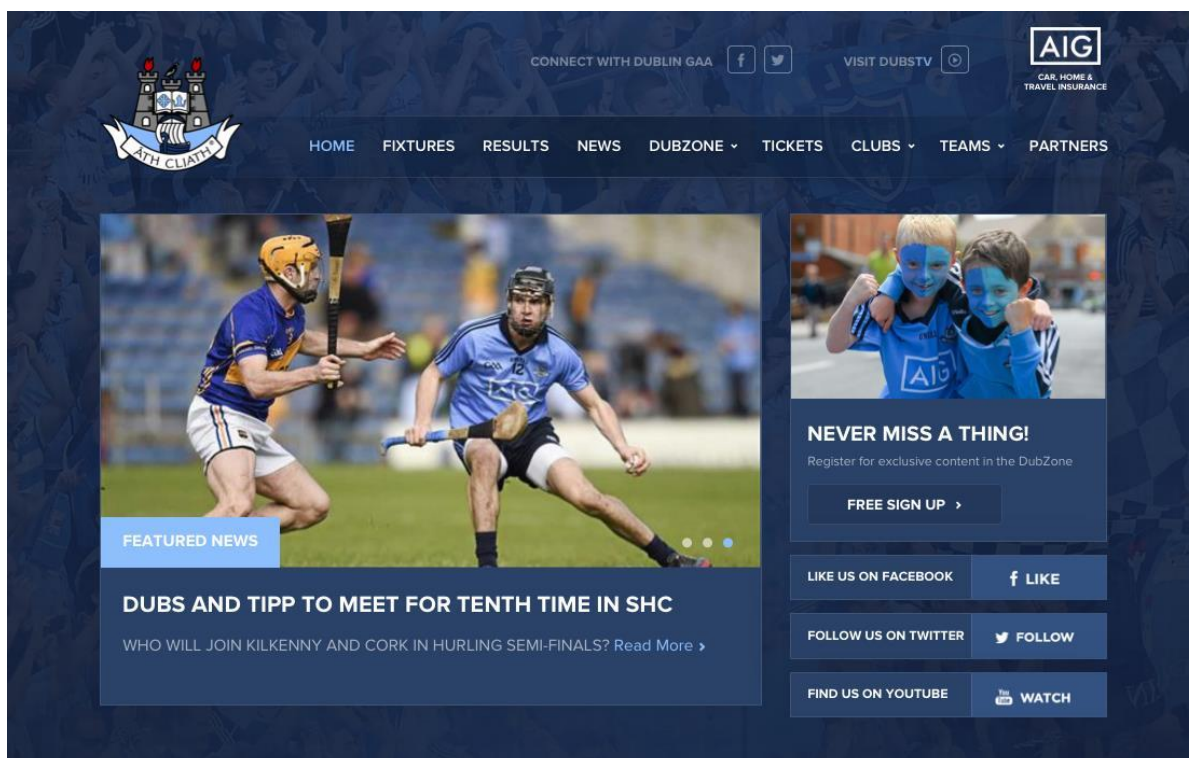

The new leader is Dave Kiely on 85 points, followed by George O'Shea on 80. Cork's one and only James Murray is in 3rd place on 74 with Shane Durkin slipping to 4th on 71. Colm O'Neill also had a good month up to joint 5th with Cork lady Joan Spillane on 70 points. Tony Sweeny & Karen Buckley are next on 69 points, with Joanne Olohan and Linda Lambert completing the top 10.

The US PGA Golf is the next event in a couple of weeks time.

Dublin County Board - New Website

The Dublin County Board have rebranded their official website under the name www.dublingaa.ie which replaces Hill16.ie. The new site has been given a makeover and includes all the regular information such as fixtures, results and reports e.t.c and introduces some new elements like player profiles of the senior football and hurling squads. Below is a snapshot of what the new site looks like.
