4th Win on Trot For Boden – Wordsworth reports

AHL 1 – BBSE 1 22 Parnells 1 14

Ballyboden St Endas lined out in their Division 1 League tie round 8 match against Parnells on Saturday 8th July in Pairc Uí Mhurchú. Conditions were perfect bar a strong sun into the goalkeepers at the clubhouse end goals but no one was complaining.

The visitors took the initiative at the commencement, helping themselves to five well-taken points. Cathal Bergin led from the back and helped Boden establish a foothold in the game. Aaron Coffey sent over the first point for the home team followed quickly by a brace of frees by James Roche. A Paul Doherty point left it at 6 points to 4 in favour of Parnells at the quarter hour. Malachy Travers and Adam Jermyn were now beginning to win possession and clear good ball to the forwards. Some nice interplay in the forwards resulted in points by Finn McGarry, Conal Keaney and Sean Mc Donnell. A lapse, however, let in Parnells for a close-in goal and the first green flag of the day was raised. The sides took a deserved break on a scoreline of Boden 0-10 to Parnells 1-7.

Two points by Roche & Doherty opened the scoring in the second half, quickly followed by a pair from Parnells. Then, spurred on by some fine puckout wins (Keaney in particular) and good running by McDonnell that drew a few frees, Boden put three points on the board. To hammer home their period of dominance, Conor McCormack, at full-forward, found himself with some space and sent a rocket to the Parnells net. The close exchanges continued however and good work by Roche, McGarry and the ever-industrious Conor Robinson in the middle of the park, gave Boden the chances to keep Parnells at arm's length. Colm Ó'Néill and Morgan Ryan were among the scorers in the final minutes to leave the final score Boden 1-22 Parnells 1-14. A fourth win in a row for Boden and particularly impressive given the absence of key players – fine displays by all the lads who stepped up to the mark. Next match up is a top of the table clash against Na Fianna on 22nd July.

Added Time Agony for Boden in Sen B Championship – The Long Fella reports

Senior B 1 17 Raheny 2 15

Boden's senior B hurlers championship year was left in the hands of others after the narrowest defeat to Raheny in Pairc Ui Murchu on Wednesday evening. The visitors added a goal and a point in the thirty fifth minute of the second half cancelling out a three point advantage. Bizarrely the referee was playing several added minutes of time despite the fact that interested time-keepers on the line had the game set to end well before the Raheny sucker blows.

Raheny were quickest from the blocks with an early goal and a point, Eoin Smith showing particularly fine form. For Boden the points came too, with Michael Boland setting out on what was to become a fine display of point taking, particularly from out on the whitewash. Finnian McDonagh also added to the Boden tally with a fine goal after good outfield work by Ross Cullen. In defence Boden's best performer was Mike Clifford. His touches and clearances kept the home supporters in positive humour, despite the apparent overall dominance of Raheny. Their point taking was exceptional. However the last four scores of the half came to Boden from Clifford, a ninety metre score, Aaron Coffey and Boland on the double, two fine individual efforts. Half Time had it at 1.11 each.

The second half was a less fluent than the opening thirty, Raheny now coming unstuck on the point taking department. At one stage they amassed five wides in succession. Boden took full advantage with Boland still fluent, but now aided by Morgan Ryan, Sean McDonnell and Donal Butler. Naoise Maguire, Adam Jermyn and the ever reliable Clifford did much of the hard graft in defence and fed the inside men with good opportunities. McDonnell had a fine second half, turning up at vital times to slow Raheny ball and turn defence into attack.

With five minutes left of the expected thirty, Ryan levelled the game and prompted the Boden boys into a fine series of points with Butler profiting from quick thinking from Ryan on the side-line, a clever piece of play. Entering the thirty-fifth minute, the home side were three points clear, only to be topped by Raheny with their two late scores. With the damage done the referee finally blew time with the next puck-out, to the disappointment of a good sized home support.

BBSE: Conor Maher; Niall Keegan, Adam Jermyn, Cathal Bergin; Christopher Lambert, Naoise Maguire, Mike Clifford; Conor Kennedy, Sean McDonnell; Morgan Ryan, Austen Lynch, Ross Cullen; Aaron Coffey, Finn McDonagh, Michael Boland. Subs: Cian Hiney for McDonagh (45), Donal Butler for Lynch (51), Matty Weldon for McDonnell (53), Fergal Murray for Boland (64).

Minor A League – Le Fear Bog reports

Ballyboden St Enda's 0-21 Na Fianna 2-9

The final score does not tell the whole story of this game played in balmy conditions in Mobhi Road on Friday evening last. Ballyboden were by far the superior team in this tie and a goal from a free by Na Fianna from Neil Currie with the last puck of the sliothar put a veneer of respectability from the home side's perspective. Ballyboden had to play the last 5 minutes with 14 men after Ronan Wallace was unfortunate to pick up a second yellow card. However the game was well put to bed by this stage and the foundation of this victory was laid by some outstanding point scoring in both half's. The defence was resolute and tenacious and kept Na Fianna to an admirable 4 points from play with Sam Lally catching the eye with some spectacular fielding from Na Fianna puck outs.

Just as they did last week against Kilmacud, Ballyboden got off to a fast start with Tommy Glynn and Daniel O'Riordan pointing in the first 3 minutes to establish a lead that they were never to forfeit. Ballyboden went in at half time leading by 0-8 to 0-4. The pick of the scores in that first half came from a spectacular effort from Cillian Wall in the 18th minute and a Daniel O'Riordan score in the 21st minute. O'Riordan would finish the game with 5 points from play, 2 in the first half, 3 in the second, each a carbon copy of each other as he ran at pace at the Na Fianna back line and effortlessly pucked over the bar.

A goal from a free in front of the posts, in very similar circumstances to his last second goal, by Currie put some smacht into Ballyboden. However they drove on from there and by the mid-point of the half Ballyboden had established a 9 point lead. Kevin Desmond, Luke Basquel and O'Riordan tormented the Na Fianna defence and the 2 league points were in the bag well before the end. Matches are now coming thick and fast and the next outing is Wednesday when Ballyboden once again take to the road against Lucan.

Scorers: Daniel O'Riordan 0-5, Luke Basquel 0-5, Ciarán Cashman 0-4 (3 frees), Kevin Desmond 0-2, Jack Kenny 0-1, Tommy Glynn 0-1, Cillian Wall 0-1, Daniel Nugent 0-1, Joe McGrath 0-1.

News From Berlin GAA

It's been a fantastic few months for Berlin GAA with all our teams making significant breakthroughs in both codes. Most recently, the Berlin GAA men's football team finally broke through and won their first official tournament after three hard years of near misses in finals and semi-finals. At the final round of the regional league in Munich on July 1, Berlin won the tournament, beating long-time rivals Vienna Gaels in the final to cement an overall finish of second place in the regional league for 2017.

The Berlin Ladies also won their first official tournament this year, triumphing in the round in Zurich on May 6. Their success set them up for an epic finale against Munich Colmcilles in Munich on July 1 but unfortunately, the Colmcilles did enough to take the win, leaving the Berlin Ladies in second place in the regional league for 2017.

It's been a breakthrough year for our hurlers as well. Having won the German Hurling/Camogie Championship double in Dresden in April, our hurlers added further small ball silverware as they won the Shield Competition in Luxembourg on May 20. They followed that up with another Shield win at the Hamburg tournament on June 17. These impressive performances were complemented by a strong display from the Berlin Camógs, who as part of Team Germany, finished fourth at the Hamburg league round in mid June, with only the experienced Benelux teams finishing ahead of them.

The weeks ahead will see our teams earn some well-deserved rest ahead of the European Championships in football, hurling and camogie, which take place in late Summer/early Autumn.

2007 Boys Mini Hurling All Ireland

The 2007 boys finished their Summer training with the mini All Ireland series.

Competition was fierce, with some closely contested games. As we approached the final night all six teams were still in contention - the losing bonus point ensuring competition would reach fever pitch for the boys and even more importantly for the Coaches.....

On the night, the final was contested by Jim Boland /Colin Durkins team against Brian Delaney/ Cathal Fitzgeralds team. This was an intense game with great skills demonstrated by both sides and there was never more than one score between the sides. Ultimate victory and the much coveted trophies went to the Boland /Durkin combo.

All the boys had a great time during the games and at the awards presentation that followed. Special guest on the night was Ethan Lyons who had picked up an injury earlier in series but who came along to support his team on the night.

Many thanks to Pat Nortis for the photos.

Dublin U14 Camogie Blitz 2017

Saturday, July 8th saw over 500 girls and 27 teams from counties all over Ireland invited to take part in the annual Dublin U14 Blitz.

Teams representing Antrim, Carlow, Cork, Kildare, Kilkenny, Meath, Offaly, Roscommon, Tipperary, Waterford, Wexford and Dublin were competing.

The hosts this year were Naomh Mearnóg and the weather conditions on the day were perfect. The Dublin teams included 8 girls from Ballyboden St. Enda's, namely Abbie Brennan, Áine Rafter, Clodagh Delaney, Clodagh Reid, Ella McNair, Leonie Power, Michaela Fitzpatrick and Yvonne Gargan.

Congratulations to all our girls who did their club and county proud, and many thanks to all the co-ordinators, officials, volunteers and supporters who made the day a memorable one for everyone involved.
