U12s Head to Kippure for Some End of Year Adventure Sports

Our U12s topped off a great year's football and camogie with an overnight trip to Kippure for some adventure sports, with 45 of the girls taking part in a range of activities including orienteering, high wall climbing, and archery. A great time was had by all – and a great way to end the season - well done to all the girls.

Thanks to Ciaran Dempsey for the pic.

Road trip for the U12's

Many thanks to Ardclough GAA for inviting the U12 boys down to play a 15 aside challenge match.

It was the boys first competitive taste of playing 15 aside on the bigger grass pitch. Both teams played cracking hurling in very cold conditions with goals flying in at both ends.

Everybody retired to the clubhouse afterwards to enjoy the very generous hospitality of our hosts.

Hopefully Boden can welcome Ardclough to Firhouse Road in the not too distant future.

If in Doubt, Sit Them Out

Gaelic games can be physical sports, and, while collisions are not a primary element of our games, they can occasionally happen. There has been an increasing number of concussion injuries over the past year, and it is important that team managers, mentors and first aid people can recognise the symptoms and know the correct actions to take in order to ensure the safety of the player. Player safety is the most important consideration in a concussion, or any injury situation. It is widely reported that an inter-county player collapsed in a dressing room a week after an initial concussion diagnosis.

SPARC lead physiotherapist, Eamon O'Reilly has kindly created the below protocol for dealing with concussion and shared the GAA Medical Scientific Welfare committee guidelines, and we ask all those involved with teams to familiarise themselves with the guidelines and with the 'If in Doubt, Site Them Out' tag line. In order to ensure player welfare and to collate club data on the occurrence of concussion injuries, SPARC will see any club member with a concussion or suspected concussion free of charge, and we strongly encourage club players to avail of this generous and important offer.

Delivery charges also apply but it's free delivery for orders above €50.
