Senior football league v Na Fianna, 1 March 2020 at Páirc Uí Mhurchú

Ballyboden St Endas 3 – 10
 Lucan Sarsfield 0 – 14

It's always nice to win your first league game and the seniors duly obliged at home on this windy Sunday morning. Playing with the wind in the first half, the home team was first on the score board after three minutes when Warren Egan split the posts. Na Fianna responded almost immediately but in the next 10 minutes Alan Flood, Ross McGarry (free) and Aran Waters added points. Na Fianna got two back from play and then up pops Bob Dwan and Brian Bobbett to cancel out these scores. The visitors had two points from frees each side of a similar point from Ross McGarry as half time arrived leaving the home side 0 – 7 to 0 – 5 ahead. This could have been much more favourable for the home side were it not for two late goal chances that went abegging. First, Conor Dooley cracked a shot off the cross bar and later Tom Hayes went for goal from a tight angle but his shot went across the goal and wide.

A two-point lead did not look good as we faced into the wind in the second half. However, as he did in the first half, Warren Egan was first to score when he popped over a point within the first minute to start a very productive few minutes for Boden. A minute later, as he bore down on goal, Darren O'Reilly was dragged to the ground and a penalty was awarded. Warren Egan's effort was saved by the goalie and while Warren caught the rebound, the Na Fianna goal remained intact. But not for long. After some great team-work, the ball was passed to Tom Hayes and he made no mistake with a well taken goal. Four minutes later, Warren Egan was fouled in the square and another penalty was awarded. Once again, the Na Fianna goalie made a good save, this time from Ross McGarry's shot. However, on this occasion, Ross finished the rebound to the net.

This left the home side 8 points ahead. Na Fianna had got a point from play earlier on. After the penalty setback, Na Fianna continued to apply pressure on the Boden goal and pointed two frees in quick succession. It could have been worse if it was not for great defensive work by Darragh Gogan and Kieran Kennedy, among others, to prevent Na Fianna adding two goals. Simon Lambert stopped the rot with a great point from distance before Darren O'Reilly palmed to the net after a good pass from Tom Hayes. This left 10 points between the sides but Na Fianna were not about to surrender without a challenge. In the final 10 minutes of ordinary and 7 minutes of added time, Na Fianna scored six points to the home sides one (a pointed free by Ross McGarry). Aran Waters was covering well around the half back line to keep Na Fianna at bay. However, Warren Egan had a chance to finish the game on a high but, with the goal at his mercy, the chance was missed.

Intermediate Football League v Good Counsel / Liffey Gaels

Intermediate Football League
Ballyboden St. Enda's 4-16
Good Counsel / Liffey Gaels 1-5

What was amazing about the Boden inter footballers emergence from a winter of hibernation was Bagsie's tan. Despite not securing a treasured role in Love Island his melanin concentration remained scarily high despite the long winter nights. Suspiciously not far behind in the melanin stakes was Lewis, but the boys from the west like to claim some Iberian heritage which may explain this.

On a cool late winter Sunday morning in Sancta Maria the league campaign finally got underway. The team boasted a debutant in the form of the towering Mark Walsh in the middle of the park and starting debuts for Conor Hanrahan and Enda Cashman. All three slotted in seamlessly and deservedly won the plaudits of the watching aficionados!

The starting team boasted a blend of youth and experience. Out of respect for our more experienced brothers we will not name Jamesie, Archie and Fergal; although all three were very influential in the course of the game. The youth element possessed one Barra Mc who has returned to the fold following a recent night at the darts (as a spectator). Barra's pinpoint accuracy mirrored the nine-darter finish he witnessed on Thursday evening.

Returning for another campaign was young Fionn Maguire. Fresh from serving the great and the good at the Big Breakfast on Saturday morning he strove to restore his "on the pitch" reputation by acting as a ball magnet such was his performance throughout the game. The celebrity chefs have nothing to fear from his culinary skills but all to fear from his football talents.

Our own energiser bunny, Tommy Burke expended so much energy at wing back that it made you wonder whether he had his own internal nuclear reactor. I hear that he was spotted in the gym after the match. Tommy was matched in effort and application by Luke O'D whose tireless running and support in the middle eventually yielded a second goal from a well-worked move which was driven low and hard to the bottom right corner of the net.

Others to make debuts were our very own Jack L (Hallelujah, a star is born) and the fleet footed John McGuire who hit a spectacular left-footed point late on in the game.

The game ended early as a contest with Boden racking up a decent score in the first half aided by a strong cold wind. The second half saw Good Counsel exert more pressure but ultimately fall a bit short. All in all it was a decent start to the league.

Team: Mark McNamee, Fionn Maguire, Fergal Haran (Jack Lambert 52'), Conor Hanrahan, Tommy Burke, James O'Hara, Keith Sweeney (0-1), Mark Walsh (0-1)(Dylan Walsh 45'), Luke O'Donoghue (2-0), Lewis Cawley (John McGuire (0-1) 50'), Enda Cashman (0-4), Ciaran Archbold (42' Seamus Keane), Cian Bates (1-3), Ruairi Kirwan (1-1), Barra McGarry (0-5). Subs not used: Ste McGrath, John McGinn, Owen Lennon, Oisín Carolan, Davey Hayes.

Fógra: thanks to Ciaran and Jim for umpiring

Fógra eile: condolences to Lewis on his recent family bereavement, thanks for playing

Maidin bhricfeasta iontach - Feb 29th 2020

Breakfast morning another success story

On Saturday morning last we hosted our third annual breakfast fundraiser for the adult hurlers and proved again to be a very sociable occasion. It has grown in strength each year and again this year we had young and old from all sections of the club enjoying the culinary skills of our own Paddy Brady. We cannot thank Paddy and his staff enough for sponsoring this event. Without his skills and organization this event just would not happen.

From 9am to 1pm the car park was packed and queues out the hallway for the Full Irish, The Continental, savoury or sweet or whatever took your fancy and topped off with numerous cups of coffee or tea. These were all served by a very willing and friendly group of hurlers decked out in their bibs and Boden colours. The paparazzi were also out in force led by the ever-present Clíona Mellett and we have the proof on all the various social media platforms. And what a great job Cliona did on Instagram etc on the lead up to the breakfast morning.

None of this is possible of course without a team of people behind the scenes. This was truly teamwork all round chaired by the very capable Mark Mellett and supported by so many others. I think we'd all agree the team did an excellent job and is now firmly in everyone's diary for next year. However, I cannot let the moment pass without giving special mention to Simon Lambert who carolled all the senior players into position on Saturday morning and cracked the whip for ticket sales. Thanks again Simon and to all the lads for their support.

What a great opportunity it was for our younger members to 'meet and greet the Boden Hurling family' in a somewhat unfamiliar setting. Whether it was Conal Keaney serving coco-pops or James Madden buttering toast or Paul Ryan ah just floating, they were always up for the photo-op. Other guys weren't so lucky and got the short straw on wash-up but I hear Ste O Conor was cracking the whip off camera.

Finally, a big thank you to all our sponsors many of whom have supported our breakfast morning each year. We truly appreciate your support and we can only hope our members return the favour by supporting your business in the year ahead.

Volunteerism is alive and thriving as proven with a very hands-on approach by so many people and if we can transfer this spirit of co-operation and support to the playing fields, I do believe we should have a year to remember.

Best of luck to all club teams in the coming season and thanks again for your support on Saturday morning.

Thanking you,

John Ryan
Hurling Chairman.

Corona Virus Advice from HSE

Advice from the HSE is that the risk of catching coronavirus in Ireland is still low. This may change. However, most people may continue to go to work, school and other public places, as usual. See <https://www2.hse.ie/conditions/coronavirus/coronavirus.html>

While this advice remains in place, GAA club matches and training will continue as usual. If any person feels themselves to be especially at risk or for any other reason would prefer not to participate in games or training, then, of course, they are fully entitled to step aside while there is risk of transmission. Players are advised to bring their own water bottles to games and training and where possible to avoid using shared water bottles.

The situation remains under review, and we will react accordingly should advice from the HSE, the GAA or Dublin County Board change.

WHATS APP / COMMUNICATIONS

Everyone with access to Club/Team social media platforms has a responsibility when using these social media platforms to not do or post anything online that might tarnish Ballyboden St Enda's and the GAA's image and reputation.

No Club social media platform should be used to post or share material which is :

violent, sexually explicit, obscene, hateful, or defamatory.

suggests or encourages illegal activity.

engages in trolling, bullying, or abusive activity.

engages in the disparagement of any race, ethnicity or religion.

In the event of misuse, there is an obligation from team managements along with the recipients of the inappropriate posts to call it out and address it with the poster of the content. If we do not adhere to this, our Club and particularly those involved in the posts (complicit or otherwise) of inappropriate material all stand to blame.

Comhghairdeas le Eoghan Ó Néill a d'eagraigh Seirbhís trí Ghaeilge ag an mBricfeasta Mhaidin Buifé Dé Sathairn seo caite.

Cúpla Pocs

Oíche fhuar gheimhriúil a bhí ann Dé hAoine seo caite ach níor chuir sé sin isteach nó amach ar na hardy bucks a tháinig chun páirce do chúpla pocs os cionn 40 ar an bPáirc Haca i Sancta Maria. The 'os cionn 40' bit seems to be getting more stretched every week.

Faoi stiúr fear na féasóige Brendan Ryan, tá ag éirí go hana mhaith linn. The first part of the night is the warm up. Unfortunately, we forgot the dynamic hamstring stretches and Brendan had to spend the rest of the evening idir na cuallaí tar éis dó teannán na hioscaide* a tharraingt. The second part of the warm up was taken up by Peadar de Bhál showing us the clip on the hand he got from a different fear na féasóige* a couple of weeks previously.

Níl ach cúpla riail i gceist leis an gcúpla pocs:

1. Níl cead taicil a dhéanamh
2. Cúpla focal Gaeilge a úsáid más féidir
3. Bheith os cionn 40

Unfortunately Mick Kennedy tried to introduce a fourth rule, something to do with scoring inside or outside a cone, ní raibh éinne róchinnte. This rule will go down as the shortest living rule in the history of CLG mar thugamar bata is bóthar dó tar éis cúpla nóiméad. After that, it was a free flowing game. Ní raibh aon ‘free’ ann mar ní raibh aon réiteoir ann.

Tháinig Bomber ag tús an dara leath agus é déanach mar is gnáth ach chomh luath is a tháinig sé, the game went onto another plane as everyone wanted to impress - they knew he would be telling all to Linda later on. Cruthaíonn Messi na hIomána spás.. the problem is no one is able to run into it. How many hundreds of players can now say they have played with Bomber Ó Ríordáin? Sin ceist don chéad Tráth na gCeist eile ag Tom O Donoghue.

Comórtas Peile Pháidí Uí Shé

Thaistil foirne Pheil na mBan A agus B síos go Ríocht Ríoraíoch Chiarraí an deireadh seachtaine seo caite le páirt a ghlacadh i gComórtas Peile Pháidí Uí Shé. D’éirigh leis an bhfoireann B an comórtas sóiseareach a bhuachaint an bhliain seo caite, agus tar éis don chorn féin dul ar strae ag an Gala Mór i Citywest, bhí greim docht Daingean Uí Chúis acu ar an gcorn i mbliana agus ní rabhadar sásta scaoileadh leis gan troid.

D’éirigh leis an bhfoireann B an bua a fháil ar dhá fhoireann ó Chiarraí ar pháirc ghaofar Gallaras sular sháraigh siad Breaffy ó Mhaigh Eo sa chraobh leis an gcorn a thógaint slán ar ais chuig an bpríomhchathair arís.

D’éirigh leis an bhfoireann A dul chomh fada leis an gcrabhadh chomh maith, ach faraor buadh orthu le pointe amháin.

Idir pheil, dea/drochrince, snámh sioctha agus uile spraoi, ba dheireadh seachtaine den scoth é. Deirtear go bhfuil tús curtha leis an drive-for-five anois.

Concussion Management Guidelines for Gaelic Games

▣ Prepare

Prepare Perform Recover

If in Doubt, Sit Them Out

Gaelic games can be physical sports, and, while collisions are not a primary element of our games, they can occasionally happen. There has been an increasing number of concussion injuries over the past year, and it is important that team managers, mentors and first aid people can recognise the symptoms and know the correct actions to take in order to ensure the safety of the player. Player safety is the most important consideration in a concussion, or any injury situation. It is widely reported that an inter-county player collapsed in a dressing room a week after an initial concussion diagnosis.

SPARC lead physiotherapist, Eamon O'Reilly has kindly created the below protocol for dealing with concussion and shared the GAA Medical Scientific Welfare committee guidelines, and we ask all those involved with teams to familiarise themselves with the guidelines and with the 'If in Doubt, Site Them Out' tag line. In order to ensure player welfare and to collate club data on the occurrence of concussion injuries, SPARC will see any club member with a concussion or suspected concussion free of charge, and we strongly encourage club players to avail of this generous and important offer.
