Scothfhoireann Ger Flaherty

Tá aithne ag gach éinne i mBaile Buadáin Naomh Éanna ar Ger Flaherty. Chaith sé na blianta ag imirt leis an gclub mar chúlbáire agus níl deireadh leis go fóill mar imreoir. Bhí sé mar chathaoirleach ar an Roinn Peile nuair a bhuaigh na peileadóirí Craobh Club AIB sa bhliain 2016 agus bua iontach acu ar Mhistéalaigh Chaisleán an Bharraigh leis an scór 2-14 go 0-7.

D'iarramar ar Ger scothfhoireann Átha Cliath lena linnse a ainmniú. An aontaíonn tú leis?

A MESSAGE FOR GAA CLUB MEMBERS

A MESSAGE FOR GAA CLUB MEMBERS

A chairde,

We are living in the most extraordinary times.

The Coronavirus pandemic has changed almost everything about our world and has impacted upon so much of what we thought was normal about our lives.

Like all sport, Gaelic Games have gone into hibernation.

But it is a source of enormous pride to us that what has not disappeared or become dormant has been the spirit and the passion for community that is the lifeforce of the GAA in every corner of this island.

Clubs big and small and across towns and rural parishes are doing what the GAA has been proud to do for 136 years – and that's be a light and a standard for the people who they represent.

We have always said that the GAA ultimately, is all about People – People working together for a goal.We have a common goal now like never before.

Our goal is to help the island of Ireland push back against the spread of this virus and give the people of Ireland the best chance possible of limiting its impact and being able to hopefully, some day in the not too distant future, come out the other side.

This community spirit is also prominent among our hundreds of GAA clubs overseas who are such a vital support network for our Diaspora.

To the people posting skills drills for stuck at home players, keep up the good work. To all of those who have been able to offer help to the vulnerable in their communities, we extend our sincerest míle buíochas and urge you to stay safe while doing so and follow all the advice and guidelines from the health and statutory authorities.

From the outset of this crisis the GAA has been working closely with the HSE and we have made all of their guidelines available to all of our clubs. Their request for our support has deepened in recent times.

The large car parking facilities at Croke Park have been made available for staff working in nearby hospitals. We have made part of Croke Park available as a drive through test centre for people with symptoms of Covid-19. Cars arrive by prior appointment and drive into the Cusack Stand tunnel where they are tested by doctors in their cars and they then drive away out the other side.

It is all conducted under full medical supervision.

It is an opportunity for GAA HQ to play its part and mirror what is being done by so many of our members elsewhere.

Similar testing facilities are now in operation at several other GAA county and club venues around the country - all of them playing an important role.

Sport is not a priority at a time of a national emergency.

But when the time comes again for the boots to be laced, hurleys to be gripped, nets to be hung and the pitches to be marked and when the time comes for men and women, and boys and girls to run out into the air and play the games they love, sport will be more important than ever before.

We are planning for that day – whenever that day may be.

In the meantime, we can help make that day come quicker if we do what we are being asked to do by the people who know what they are talking about.

Stop, look and listen to all of the advice that is there on how we beat this common foe. Washing our hands, personal distancing and if needs be self-isolation are the weapons that we have.

Keep safe, keep thinking of others, keep fit and healthy in body and mind.

As that great son of Derry, Seamus Heaney wrote:

"So hope for a great sea-change

On the far side of revenge.

Believe that further shore

Is reachable from here.

Believe in miracles

And cures and healing wells."

Inaugural Courtville Jewellers Camogie and Hurling Ball-Wall Competition-a great success!

The matches may be on hold but the inaugural Courtville Jewellers sponsored ball-wall competition held over the Easter weekend gave rise to plenty of competitive Camogie and Hurling action. The Camogie competition featured the Senior A Camogie panel and the Senior B hurlers fought for the coveted bragging rights in the hurling competition. The hurling report is not available at the time of going to press. It is thought that the delay has resulted from various ongoing disciplinary appeals arising from the competition (suggestions of impersonation and violent scenes being posted in the ball-wall video by the eldest son of the Club Chairman and Drama Group Queen being some of the concerns). No such difficulties with the Camogie competition however where all was above board. The competition started on Friday evening and finished in a thrilling last hour on Monday evening.

Competition Rules

Hit the ball against the wall followed by a clean catch as many times as you can and post your video.

Video Highlights

There was great ingenuity in finding a wall within a 2km radius of home, particularly after some participants were moved on by unhappy neighbours. The competition attracted international entries with Laura Nagle and Jodie White flying in from LA and Madrid respectively. Sarah Nagle kindly let her sister beat her as a welcome home gesture. Martha O' Donohue's brother was unimpressed with his intercounty sister's ball-wall performance – 'Depressing'' is how he described it in the video.

Martha redeemed herself with a change of wall and camera operator (Eve being much more supportive). Kitman Bernard misunderstood the rules and posted a video of himself doing press-ups in his garden (it won't be going on general release). Oh and the results... After a nail biting finish the prize winners were: 1st Doireann Mullany 278 2nd Ciara O'Neill 264 3rd Darina Ryan 204

Presentations of the very generous vouchers were made via a virtual gathering on Monday night by the Managing Director of Courtville Jewellers, Mr. Matthew Weldon . Thanks to Club Chairman, Ciaran Maguire, for his attendance on the night. Find Courtville Jewellers shop on Instagram @matthew.weldons or https://www.courtville.ie/

Do It for Dan

A fellow Gael needs our help.

Dear Chairman,

My name is Sean Dempsey.

I'm a Laois man from the St Joseph's GAA club.

In October 2003 I had the privilege of watching a group of boys, whom by that point I had worked with for almost 8 years, mature into men and claim a famous All- Ireland minor victory.

On their journey to glory I witnessed them meet and overcome every challenge head on; their strength and unity made them a force to be reckoned with, they epitomised the word team.

Their dedication to Laois was unwavering and they brought great joy and hope to the county.

Fast forward 17-years and they are united once more. This time their end goal is different, this time, it's not about winning matches it's about saving a life.

Dan Donoher, son of former Laois player Niall, is in a battle that no child should ever have to face. He is suffering from a rare muscular disease called Spinal Muscular Atrophy Type1.

Dan just turned one and his life expectancy is barely beyond that, without lifesaving medical intervention he will not see another year.

This infusion he needs is available exclusively from an American pharmaceutical company at a cost of 2.1 million dollars.

To date almost 400,000 euros has being raised but our fundraising projects has been hampered by the corona virus and restrictions rightfully imposed to help limit it spreading.

However the GAA community is like no other and when we stand together, we are capable of anything.

I know there are challenging times ahead for us all but little Dan Donoher does not have the luxury of waiting for this crisis to end. He needs help now.

Time waits for no child, man or woman so your generosity and speed of response is vital. I am writing to plead for help for Niall, his wife Aisling ne Quigley ( whose brother Brendan was also on the 2003 team) and their son to all units of the GAA. worldwide. I believe if we all donate we can save young Dan's life.

If you can please share this with your executive, club members, sponsors and friends I will be forever grateful.

Thank you so much in advance for your support.

'Their Story': How the U14 Boys Are Coping With Social Isolation

** More stories have been added since last week.

Last week we asked the U14 lads to send in "Their Story", to document their thoughts and difficulties experienced during the Covid 19 pandemic crisis. We asked them to describe how they were coping with the restrictions through stories, pictures, new things they've learned, inspirational quotes, how they've managed to maintain fitness, anything they have watched and enjoyed, something or someone that has inspired them.

We've gathered all of the responses to date and wish to share them with the wider Ballyboden St Endas community. They clearly show that the boys' talents extend far beyond the football and hurling pitches of Co. Dublin. They are a very creative and resilient bunch of lads who, while struggling with social isolation, have found a variety of ways to cope with this very difficult situation. It will hopefully be a once in a lifetime experience for all of us, leaving lasting memories and a range of emotions. Through their enforced new lifestyles, the boys provide some inspirational advice, funny stories, great poems, and routines to keep fit and the skills levels up to a high standard. It is well known that a healthy body leads to a healthy mind, the U14 boys are showing us how this can easily be achieved. Good luck to all of our friends and community during these trying times.

Concussion Management

If in Doubt, Sit Them Out

Gaelic games can be physical sports, and, while collisions are not a primary element of our games, they can occasionally happen. There has been an increasing number of concussion injuries over the past year, and it is important that team managers, mentors and first aid people can recognise the symptoms and know the correct actions to take in order to ensure the safety of the player. Player safety is the most important consideration in a concussion, or any injury situation. It is widely reported that an inter-county player collapsed in a dressing room a week after an initial concussion diagnosis.

SPARC lead physiotherapist, Eamon O'Reilly has kindly created the below protocol for dealing with concussion and shared the GAA Medical Scientific Welfare committee guidelines, and we ask all those involved with teams to familiarise themselves with the guidelines and with the 'If in Doubt, Site Them Out' tag line. In order to ensure player welfare and to collate club data on the occurrence of concussion injuries, SPARC will see any club member with a concussion or suspected concussion free of charge, and we strongly encourage club players to avail of this generous and important offer.
