Presents

LAST MAN STANDING

- ♦ Pick the winner of a Premier League match each week
- ♦ If your selection wins, you progress to the next round
- ♦ You cannot pick the same team twice
- ♦ Last player standing takes home €500
- ♦ €200 runner up prize fund
- ♦ €20 entry fee
- ♦ Proceeds to Adult Hurling Development

First Game Week: Tuesday 8th February 2022

Just a few weeks to go to join in the Adult Hurling Section's Fun Fundraiser. It is based on the English Premiership and is proving very popular with an excellent response to date. Thank you to all.

It involves picking the winner of a Premiership game each week and continuing on each week (if successful) until you are the "Last Man Standing". There is a €500 prize for the "Last Man Standing". You can pre-register by clicking on the link. An e-mail will then be sent to you outlining what to do next. Payment can be made by Debit/Credit Card via the clubs Stripe account and is entirely secure. There is only one payment involved....once you are in, you are in as long as you pick one correct score each week...it's that simple!! Picking the obvious in Week 1 may not keep you "Standing" in the long run!! Strategy is important. The Competition Rules are set out below.

Money raised goes to Adult Hurling Development. Please participate and spread the news. Registration continues up to the date of the first Round of games on February 8th but please register in advance of that.

<https://forms.gle/qm3cWY6X7TSckh4m6>

Competition Rules

1. Each week, simply pick a premier league soccer team playing that week to win – if your team wins, you go through; lose or draw and you're out.
- 2 You can only pick a team to win once so be tactical about who you pick and when
3. All selections must be in before the game week closes. This is normally 60 mins before the first game starts
4. Should you forget to make your selection in any week, you will automatically be assigned the first team that you have not selected in alphabetical order. (A reminder email will be sent out so you don't forget).
5. If your team's game is postponed you are automatically put through to the next round, and you cannot select that team again.
6. If more than one participant remains at the end, the accumulated 'scored for' of their selected teams will determine the winner. This also applies if during the competition the remaining players are knocked out in the same game week then the player with the highest score will be the winner.
7. If the remaining players 'scored for' points are equal then there will be joint winners.

Ballyboden St Endas Christmas tree Collection

The 9th Ballyboden St Endas Christmas tree collection took place on Saturday. Thousands of calls & texts were received in the lead up to the day and the address details collated. We were fortunate that the rain stopped at 9am and the Club volunteers went to work. We collected in excess of 1,940 trees from Kiltipper, Firhouse, Ballycullen, Knocklyon, Rathfarnham, Ballyboden, Whitechurch & Churchtown. This fundraiser continues to grow and epitomises the great relationship between the Club and the local community.

We would like to thank:

- AJ Grab Hire for once again transporting the huge volume of trees on the day, it wouldn't be possible to transport this volume of trees without their generosity.
- South Dublin County Council for once again facilitating us in the disposing and shredding of the trees.
- Laura & Catherine for looking after the administration on the day
- Geraldine, Susan & Pauline for serving the refreshments – and Damien Coleman for providing same
- The 24 van & truck owners for once again making themselves available
- The 120 volunteers who helped on the day – an amazing feat to have all trees collected by 3pm

Organising committee – Kieran Rudden, Eoin Reid, Keith McCluskey, Eamonn Clarke, Diarmuid Fitzgerald, Peter Wall, Cathal Fitzgerald & Gerry White – see you next year!!

Irish in Decline: A report from 1970

Older men describe how the Irish language was once spoken in their localities but has now all but disappeared.

In the year 1800, there were more people speaking Irish than there were speaking Dutch, Swedish, Danish, and Finish. While these other European languages grew in popularity, the Irish language slumped in use.

Concussion Management Guidelines for Gaelic Games

▣ Prepare

If in Doubt, Sit Them Out

Gaelic games can be physical sports, and, while collisions are not a primary element of our games, they can occasionally happen. There has been an increasing number of concussion injuries over the past year, and it is important that team managers, mentors and first aid people can recognise the symptoms and know the correct actions to take in order to ensure the safety of the player. Player safety is the most important consideration in a concussion, or any injury situation. It is widely reported that an inter-county player collapsed in a dressing room a week after an initial concussion diagnosis.

SPARC lead physiotherapist, Eamon O'Reilly has kindly created the below protocol for dealing with concussion and shared the GAA Medical Scientific Welfare committee guidelines, and we ask all those involved with teams to familiarise themselves with the guidelines and with the 'If in Doubt, Site Them Out' tag line. In order to ensure player welfare and to collate club data on the occurrence of concussion injuries, SPARC will see any club member with a concussion or suspected concussion free of charge, and we strongly encourage club players to avail of this generous and important offer.
