Biggest influence

Teresa Molohan.

I had the pleasure of coaching with Teresa for two years in juvenile ladies football. Her ethos focuses on the girl's development mentally & physically. Her approach is player centered knowing that girls will all develop at different times in their playing careers.

Biggest change in the club in your time

The biggest change for me apart from the fantastic facilities we now have is the growth of female players in the club. To build on that we need more female volunteers.

Ladies A footballers overcome Thomas Davis

Dublin panelist Julie Vaughan, who was released by Dublin Ladies management 2 hours before throw in, was probably the difference between the two sides in this exciting and hard fought Senior A league fixture v close rivals Thomas Davis at Pairc Uí Mhúrchú last Wednesday evening.

With the home side missing many of their first team panel for various reasons and Davis having almost their full contingent, including All Stars Siobhan McGrath and Olwyn Carey, this game was always going to go down to the wire.

Boden settled into the game the quicker of the two teams and took some nice scores including a fine goal from Katie Murphy (playing her first full game in some time at corner forward) However it was Julie Vaughan, just out of minor and making her Senior A debut who stole the show with 2 wonderful goals, one of where she ran from the 45 metre line straight through the heart of the visitors' defence with nobody able to put a hand on her as she placed an unstoppable shot to the net, showing why the Dublin senior selectors have such high hope for her on the Inter County scene.

Boden led at half time 3.06 to 1.08

Our first half display probably won the game for us in the end as for long periods of the second half we were under pressure defensively but great work by Hannah Murphy, Avril Flood, Jenny Walsh and attacking half back Claire Kirwan ensured that we didn't concede another goal and were still in contention come the closing stages.

Thomas Davis equalised the game with a pointed free on 31minutes and were clearly in the ascendancy, with this writer keen to take a share of the spoils at this stage but the game turned in Boden favour with a pitch long move which ended with the lively Katie McDonald stroking over a lovely point to the disappointment of the Davis's sideline. The hosts then added another point from a free by Simone Reilly who ended the game with a personal tally of 5 points.

Olivia Meagher is another player that should be given a special mention as her tireless work around the middle of the field, a girl who has only joined the senior panel this year, was exceptional.

However the final word must be given to scorer in chief Julie Vaughan who will forever remember her senior debut with a personal tally of 2.1

Many thanks to the Dublin management for releasing her to play.

Final score: Ballyboden St. Endas 3.11

Thomas Davis 1.15

Boden in Action for Dublin Minor's in Leinster Championship Semi Final

Congratulations to Ella McNair, Leonie Power and Sadie Codd and the rest of the Dublin Minor Camogie team who beat Wexford in the Leinster Championship Semi-Final on Saturday April 16th. They play Kilkenny in the Leinster Final this Sunday 24th at 3pm in Dicksboro GAA. Best of luck to all involved.

Senior A Camogie go Three from Three on 12th April

Ballyboden St Endas 3-05 Naomh Jude's 1-08

The Ballyboden Senior A Camogie team continued their winning ways with a hard fought win over our neighbours in Pairc Ui Mhurchu on Tuesday evening.

Jude's got off to a good start with two points but a couple of breakaway goals by Boden, against the run of play put them into the lead. Jude's struck back and by half time the sides were level on a score line of 2-0 to 0-6.

The Boden team upped the ante in the second half and launched a number of attacks while defending stoutly. The sides were level on a couple of occasions in the half but a third goal by Boden was crucial. A number of points by Boden followed, and despite Naomh Jude's finding the net the home side ran out winners in the end by three points.

It was a deserved win for the team on a final score line of 3-05 to 1-08.

Next up is Oliver Plunketts away on 26th April.

Senior B Camogie Pipped at the Post

Senior B vs Naomh Bríd, 18.4.22

The previous time these two teams met it was a thriller to watch, with Boden coming from behind to earn a well-deserved victory. On this occasion, like Deja vu, it was Brigids once again that got off to the flying start and without warning the Boden girls found themselves trailing by 6 pts, unable to register a score and finding it difficult to get the ball out of their own half. Suddenly coming to life in the 2nd quarter, the Boden girls registered a very impressive 1:05 without reply, to lead by 2pts at half time, a real half of 2 halves!

Half time score: Boden 1:05 St Brigids 0:06

The 2nd half was a thrilling end to end game and Boden fought hard in all areas of the pitch to hold their lead, however a final surge by Brigids in the last few minutes of the game earned them a goal that edged them ahead and once again the final whistle came just that bit too soon for the Boden girls to respond.

Final score: Boden 1:08 St Brigids 1:10

Next up: Raheny, Thursday April 21st 7pm in PUM.

A Proud Day For U15 Hurlers

A very special day for our U15 hurlers. Congratulations to three of our finest, James, Fiachra and Josh who played their first game for Dublin U15s against Cork. They are a credit to their families, team mates, coaches and Ballyboden St Endas, and have a great future ahead. Maith sibh, a bhuachaillí.

U15 Camogie v Lucan Sarsfields

Our U15s were in League action v Lucan Sarsfields, with the A's at home coming out the wrong side of a 3:06 to 2:15 result despite a very spirited second half performance at Cherryfield, while our B's lost by a scoreline of 6:04 vs 2:05 again despite a battling performance from our girls.

Well done girls!

Baile Buadain Le Gaeilge 2022

Baile Buadain le
GAEILGE

Sinéad Sweeney agus Micheál Manning taobh thiar den bheár

Gaeilge taobh thiar den Bheár

Tá an-áthas a fhógairt go bhfuil daoine nua le Gaeilge fostaithe at Mick Farrell taobh thiar den bheár, ina measc Sinéad Sweeney agus Micheál Manning. D'fhreastal Sinéad ar Cholaiste Iosagáin agus is mac léinn í faoi láthair i RCSI. Is iníon í le Tony Sweeney, atá bainteach le Baile Buadáin leis na blianta. Imríonn Sinéad peil le BBNÉ.

D'fhreastal Micheál Manning ar Ghaelcholáiste an Phiarsaigh agus is mac léinn é I DCU. Is mac é Micheál le Paul, rúnaí an chlub. Imríonn Micheál peil agus iomáint le BBNÉ.

Is baill iad beirt de Mheitheal Oibre na Gaeilge, agus ní bheidh aon deacracht pionta a ordú as Gaeilge amach anseo.

A special word of thanks to Mick Farrell who has given this initiative every support. Míle buíochas Mick.

Bréagscrúdú

Ár mbuíochas le Maurice Sweeney, ball de Mheitheal Oibre na Gaeilge, a d'eagraigh béaltrialacha do lucht na hArdteiste sa halla Dé Domhnaigh seo caite. Bhí foireann láidir ag cabhrú le Maurice an oíche chéanna, ina measc Daire Mac Pháidín, Derek Wark agus Laura Burns. Rinne Tony Sweeney an bolscaireacht agus is léir gur oibrigh sé, mar d'fhreastal 19 imreoirí ar an ócáid. Tá súil agam go gcabhródh sé leis na mic léinn agus iad ag tabhairt faoin mbéaltrial i gceann seachtain nó dhó. Go n-éirí libh go léir.

Two-thirds support more Irish in daily life as young people increasingly link language and identity

THERE IS A clear desire for the Irish language to be a more prominent feature of daily life in this country, with younger people associating it closely with national identity.

New polling, conducted by Ireland Thinks/The Good Information Project, has found that almost two-thirds of people (65%) would like to see most people using 'cúpla focal' on a daily basis.
